Orientation Events

welcome to the Trojan Family!

Attending Orientation is an important step in preparing for your first semester at USC. If guests will be coming with you to Orientation, please confirm with them prior to finalizing any Orientation reservations. Changes or cancellations to an Orientation reservation must be done by the reservation deadline.

Confirmation:

To view your confirmation, click the Event Link for your Orientation event.

Reservation Updates:

To update your reservation details, click on the Event Link for your Orientation event.

Changing Event Dates:

To change your Orientation date, click the Event Link for your current Orientation event. Within your current reservation, click on the CHANGE EVENT DATE button. You will be prompted to confirm your reservation cancellation. Return to this Orientation Events page and choose your preferred date from the Available Orientation Events section below. We recommend confirming event availability prior to changing your reservation.
